

AIDS 2020 Track F abstract submission categories

Track F – Political research, law, policy and human rights
Political and legal factors affecting people living with and affected by HIV
F1	Laws and policies on reproduction (including coerced sterilization and abortion)
F2	Laws and policies on HIV transmission
F3	Laws and policies on travelling with HIV
F4	Laws and policies on employment, work and residence permits
F5	Age of consent laws regulating access to HIV testing and treatment and other services
F6	Human rights violations against people living with HIV
F7	Laws, policies and practices impacting access to HIV testing, prevention, treatment, care and support
F8	Laws and policies regulating access to drugs and medical devices (including intellectual property and trade regimes, competition law and price regulation)
F9	Challenging criminalization/penal provisions against gender and sexual diversity as an impediment to the global HIV response
Political drivers and contexts of the epidemic
F10	Conceptualizing political drivers and their impacts
F11	Fragile states and health systems
F12	Antiretroviral procurement and supply chain management
F13	Political violence and armed conflict
F14	Forced displacement
F15	Migration
F16	Humanitarian crises
F17	Sexual- and/or gender-based inequalities, inequities and violence
F18	Development and poverty alleviation
F19	Access to education
F20	Criminalization, incarceration and living in closed settings
F21	Law enforcement and public health
F22	Availability and access to harm reduction (including OST and NSP)
F23	Financial incentives, micro-finance and other economic approaches
F24	Safe housing, social protection and other care and support for people affected by HIV
F25	Access to appropriate healthcare services (including for co-infections and co-morbidities)
F26	Accountability on the HIV response
Human rights factors and responses
F27	Human rights of people living with HIV and key and vulnerable populations
F28	Gender equity and diversity
F29	Sexual and reproductive health and rights

F30	Children's rights and HIV
F31	Representations of stigma: Social attitudes, media and public debate
F32	Implications and backlash to the grouping of and label of "key populations" on reaching HIV response targets
F33	Racism and other forms of ethnicity-based social exclusion
F34	Experiences and impacts of homophobia and transphobia
F35	Human rights programmes
F36	Legal advocacy tools and strategies
F37	Stigma towards key populations
F38	Discrimination towards key populations
F39	Initiatives, approaches and evaluations to enhance legal literacy for communities
F40	Punitive laws and enforcement practices (including criminalization of HIV and criminalization of key populations)
F41	Challenging criminalization of sexuality, gender identity and bodily autonomy as drivers of HIV programme exclusion
F42	Investing in regional HIV programmes and regional key population movements
Ethics
F43	Ethical aspects and standards in research (including clinical trials)
F44	Ethical aspects and standards in clinical services
F45	Ethical aspects and standards in prevention programmes
F46	Ethical aspects of public health policy and programmes (including allocation of resources)
F47	Inclusion considerations for research and development and other trials
Policy development, implementation and analysis/evaluation
F48	Policies regarding HIV services and programmes
F49	Policies addressing social and economic determinants of vulnerability
F50	Policies addressing HIV in the workplace and/or educational institutions
F51	Policies related to treatment access (including intellectual property policy)
F52	Policy analysis and indicators of policy effectiveness
F53	Monitoring and evaluation of policies and their impact on people living with HIV and key populations
F54	Policies that enable increased demand, uptake and retention of key populations for HIV services and programmes
F55	Integration of HIV with other health services (including co-infections and NCDs)
F56	Policies related to diagnostics access (including intellectual property policy)
F57	Foregrounding accountability within the HIV response
F58	Implications of UHC on key populations' access to HIV programming/services
COVID-19
F59	Impact of COVID-19 on HIV risk and HIV care among refugees, migrants, asylum seekers and internally displaced persons